Abiding In The Fathers Love

This week, I want us to pause and remember the Father's love. Not the distant idea of God, but God as Father. The One who is good, present, and deeply committed to His children. Scripture reminds us, "See how very much our Father loves us, for He calls us His children, and that is what we are" (1 John 3:1).

So often, we relate to God through striving. We pray hard, serve hard, push hard, yet the Father is inviting us into something gentler. He invites us to receive. Psalm 46:10 says, "Be still, and know that I am God." Stillness is not laziness. It is trust. Quietness is not weakness. It is confidence that God is already at work.

Jesus Himself showed us this relationship. He often withdrew to quiet places to be with the Father (Luke 5:16). If the Son needed stillness, how much more do we? Our Father knows what we need before we ask Him (Matthew 6:8), and He delights in giving good gifts to His children (James 1:17).

This week, let us remember His goodness, rest in His love, and learn again how to receive. Not by force, but by faith. Not by noise, but by quiet trust.

Amen.
